

TRACKING ANIMALS

For Teachers

HOW DOES THE STORY ENDS?

Read this story to the students and ask them to come up with an ending for it, either aloud or in writing, based on the pictures. All ideas are welcome—they can let their imaginations run wild!

« LYNX-EYE ADVENTURES »

Lynx-eye is a great nature lover who likes nothing better than strolling through the woods near his home. He lives right in the middle of Quebec's Laurentian Forest, which is inhabited by beavers, porcupines, turtles and lots of other animals. They are often hiding, but Lynx-eye sometimes finds clues telling him that an animal passed that way not long ago. Yesterday he found some animal tracks. He followed them for a while, and suddenly ...
